THE FAVORABLE OUTLOOK.

Enlarged Movement of Hogs-Cold Weather Affects the Cured Product. CINCINNATI, O., May 31. - Special Telegram to THE BEE.]-The Price Current to-day will say: The movement of hogs the past week was somewhat enlarged. Total packing 215,000, against 185,000 last week, and 205,000 the corresponding week of last year. The total since March 1 approximates 10,000 in excess of last year. The quality is generally good. For the coming month the chances are that it will fall short of the corresponding time last year. The comparatively cold weather is operating against the usual call for the cured product and the disappointment experienced by winter packers who have been hedging in the hope of getting some profit is leading to an evident tendency of weakness which will be more pronounced should there be an unexpectedly large run on hogs the next two weeks. The weather has been as favorable to winter wheat as could be expected. Winter wheat points to a production of approximately 230,000,000 bushels, against 293,000,000 last year. The spring wheat crop has a fairly good start and is not likely to vary essentially from last year. Oats im-proved. Corn east of the Mississippi fairly good; a little late.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, May 31 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-STOCKS-There was little interest taken in stocks outside of the few professionals and brokers who at present control the market. Up to noon 71,895 shares had been traded in, one-half being Reading and St. Paul. The feeling was nervous and price changes outside of half a dozen securities were small and inconsequential. Reports from the west of fresh cutting of rates and fears of a general demoralization of rates throughout the whole Granger territory induced fair selling, offerings of several stocks, especially New England and St. Paul, exceeding the ability of buyers to absorb, and prices dropped 16. London sold Lake Shore sparingly and bought Eric, Union Pacific and St. Paul, but did not affect the course of valnes, which on the entire list averaged lower after the first hour. Missouri Pacific advanced % early, but lost the appreciation by noon. Coalers were off %. Cotton oils proved an exception to the general list and advanced 1 point. The Atchison-Erie consolidation scheme is receiving a good deal of attention and causing considerable uneasiness among rival lines, who fear a loss of through business should the consolidation be completed. There are many good traders who believe that the effect of reduced carnings and threatened cutting down of dividends of the Granger roads has been discounted by recent severe declines and are disposed to buy stocks on any further breaks. The last hour witnessed a dull, dragging market, with room traders playing for a decline, but making little headway toward securing further reressions from the inside figures of the morning. Net declines ranged from 1/4 to 1 point, the latter being on Omaha. Reading was off 1/4, St. Paul 1/4, New England 1/4, Lackawanna %, Western Union % and Northwestern 16 from Tuesday's close; Missouri Pacific steady. Cotton oils were 36 higher. Total sales were 132,678 shares, including 26,600 St. Paul, 26,600 Reading, 14,200 New England, 7,800 Lackawanna and 7,800 Missouri Pacific.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Cattle. Thursday, May 31, 1888. There was not much change in the receipts of cattle from yesterday. The market was active and strong on desirable fat cattle but the more common kinds do not sell as rapidly.

The market closed strong with everything

The unfavorable reports from other markets had a depressing effect upon the market here which was 5@10c lower. The most decline was on heavy hogs while good light hogs were in demand and not much lower. Everything was sold before the close.

There were none offered on the market.

A DRUNKEN SPREE. It Well Nigh Causes a Lady's Untimely Death. A young man named Dick Bullard, for merly in the employ of Patsey Fallon as a bartender, accepted an invitation from his best girl-a notorious prostitute-Wednesday nightto take a buggy ride. The gay couple proceeded to get drunk-beastly drunk-and while in this condition drove out on Sixteenth street, evidently desiring to make as disgusting an exhibition of themselves as possible. Their efforts were successful in the highest degree, and a more indecent sight could not have been witnessed than these two poon companions made. and anon they would fortify themselves with the contents of a large bottle and anen they would fortify themselves with the contents of a large bottle which they carried with them, and in less than an hour were in a condition which must be seen to be appreciated—howling drunk. The poor horse which they drove, was urged to his greatest speed, and collided with a buggy, in which were seated Dr. and Mrs. Stone. The were scated Dr. and Mrs. Stone. The latter was thrown from the vehicle, receiving injuries which are very severe and will result in her being confined to the house for some time.

As is the custom of such animals, when crazed by liquor, the abandoned pair merely let off a volley of oaths and passed on, never once stopping to ascertain the result of the good lady's injuries. A warrant was sworn out for their arrest

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

An Ordinance Gone Wrong. The arrest of Ed Shriver for peddling bananas in South Omaha has proved that one at least of the city ordinances is wrong. It is Ordinance No. 40, and there is nothing on record to show that it was legally passed. There is no record of the votes given on the "suspension of rules," under which it was said to become law. In the meantime South Omaha is open to pedlers of all kinds.

Notes About the City.

Union Pacific engine 921 was suitably decorated. John Larn got ten days for begging quarter and then getting drunk. The charge of cow stealing against J. B. Besten was adjourned until June 8.

Miss Martha Kayes and Miss Lulu Mott are visiting Miss Mary, the daughter of Judge Reuther. James P. Hayes has had to quit business on account of ill heal h, and has sold his meat-market to James P. Gardner, from Iowa. W. B. Sherman, who was brought back from Lincoln on a charge of larceny, was fined $15 and costs, which brought the bill up to $76. Thirty days in the bastile will square it. F. J. Bester, of North Omaha, is languishing in jail, charged with stealing a cow from Mrs. John O'Riley of South Omaha. About a dozen of witnesses and the cow have been subpænaed for to-day.

Mose Redmond has been appointed jailer, vice Anderson who will do patrol duty in fu-ture. Mose has been ill for some time but wants to earn the salary he draws and insists on doing something for his wages. He has lots of friends.

One of the toughest jobs around the packing houses is that of fireman. At present the boys have to work from twelve to thirteen hours a day, and they think that eight is enough. If some of the employers had to do their work they would think the same way.

Another evidence of the growth of South Omaha is the estimates handed in to the city council by the finance committee Tuesday night. Last year the levy amounted to $5,000 and left the city about $12,000 in debt. This year the estimate is for $72,200, divided as follows: Salaries, $5,500; police, $10,000; board of works, $700; sidewalks and streets, $5,000; grading, etc., $15,000, fire plugs, $1,000; street repairs, $5,000; bills unpaid, $15,000; incidentals, $15,000
